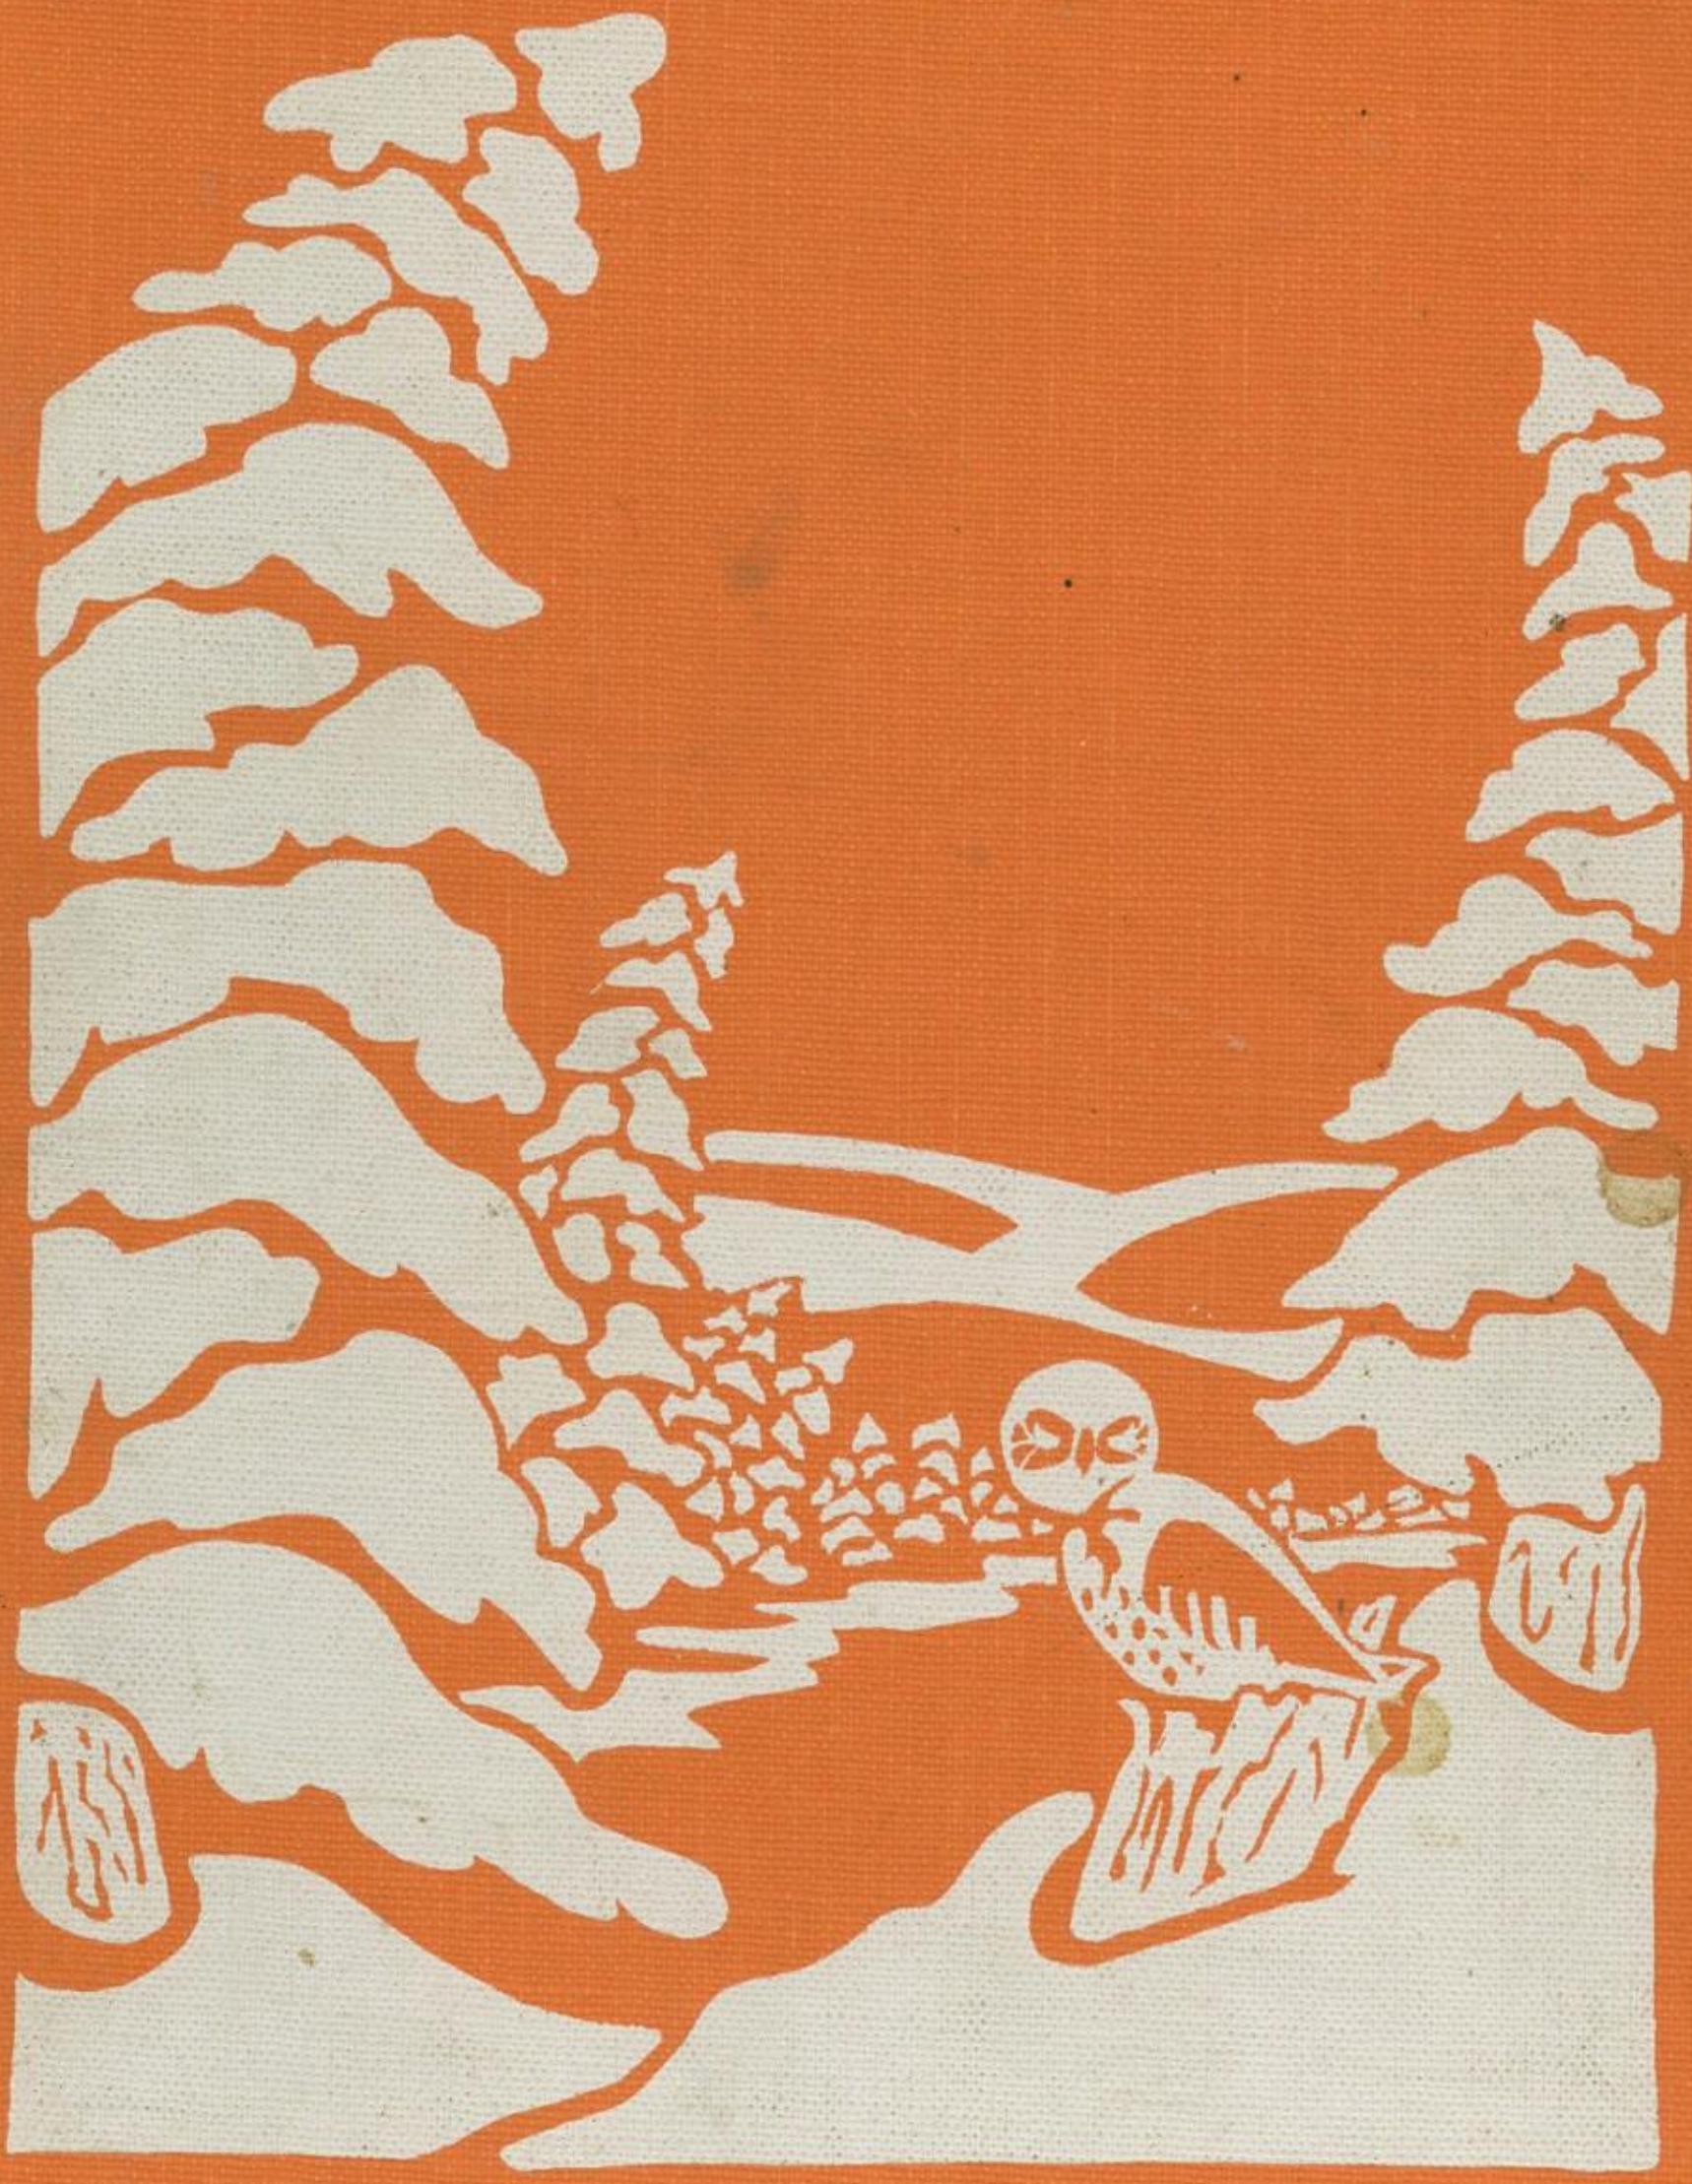
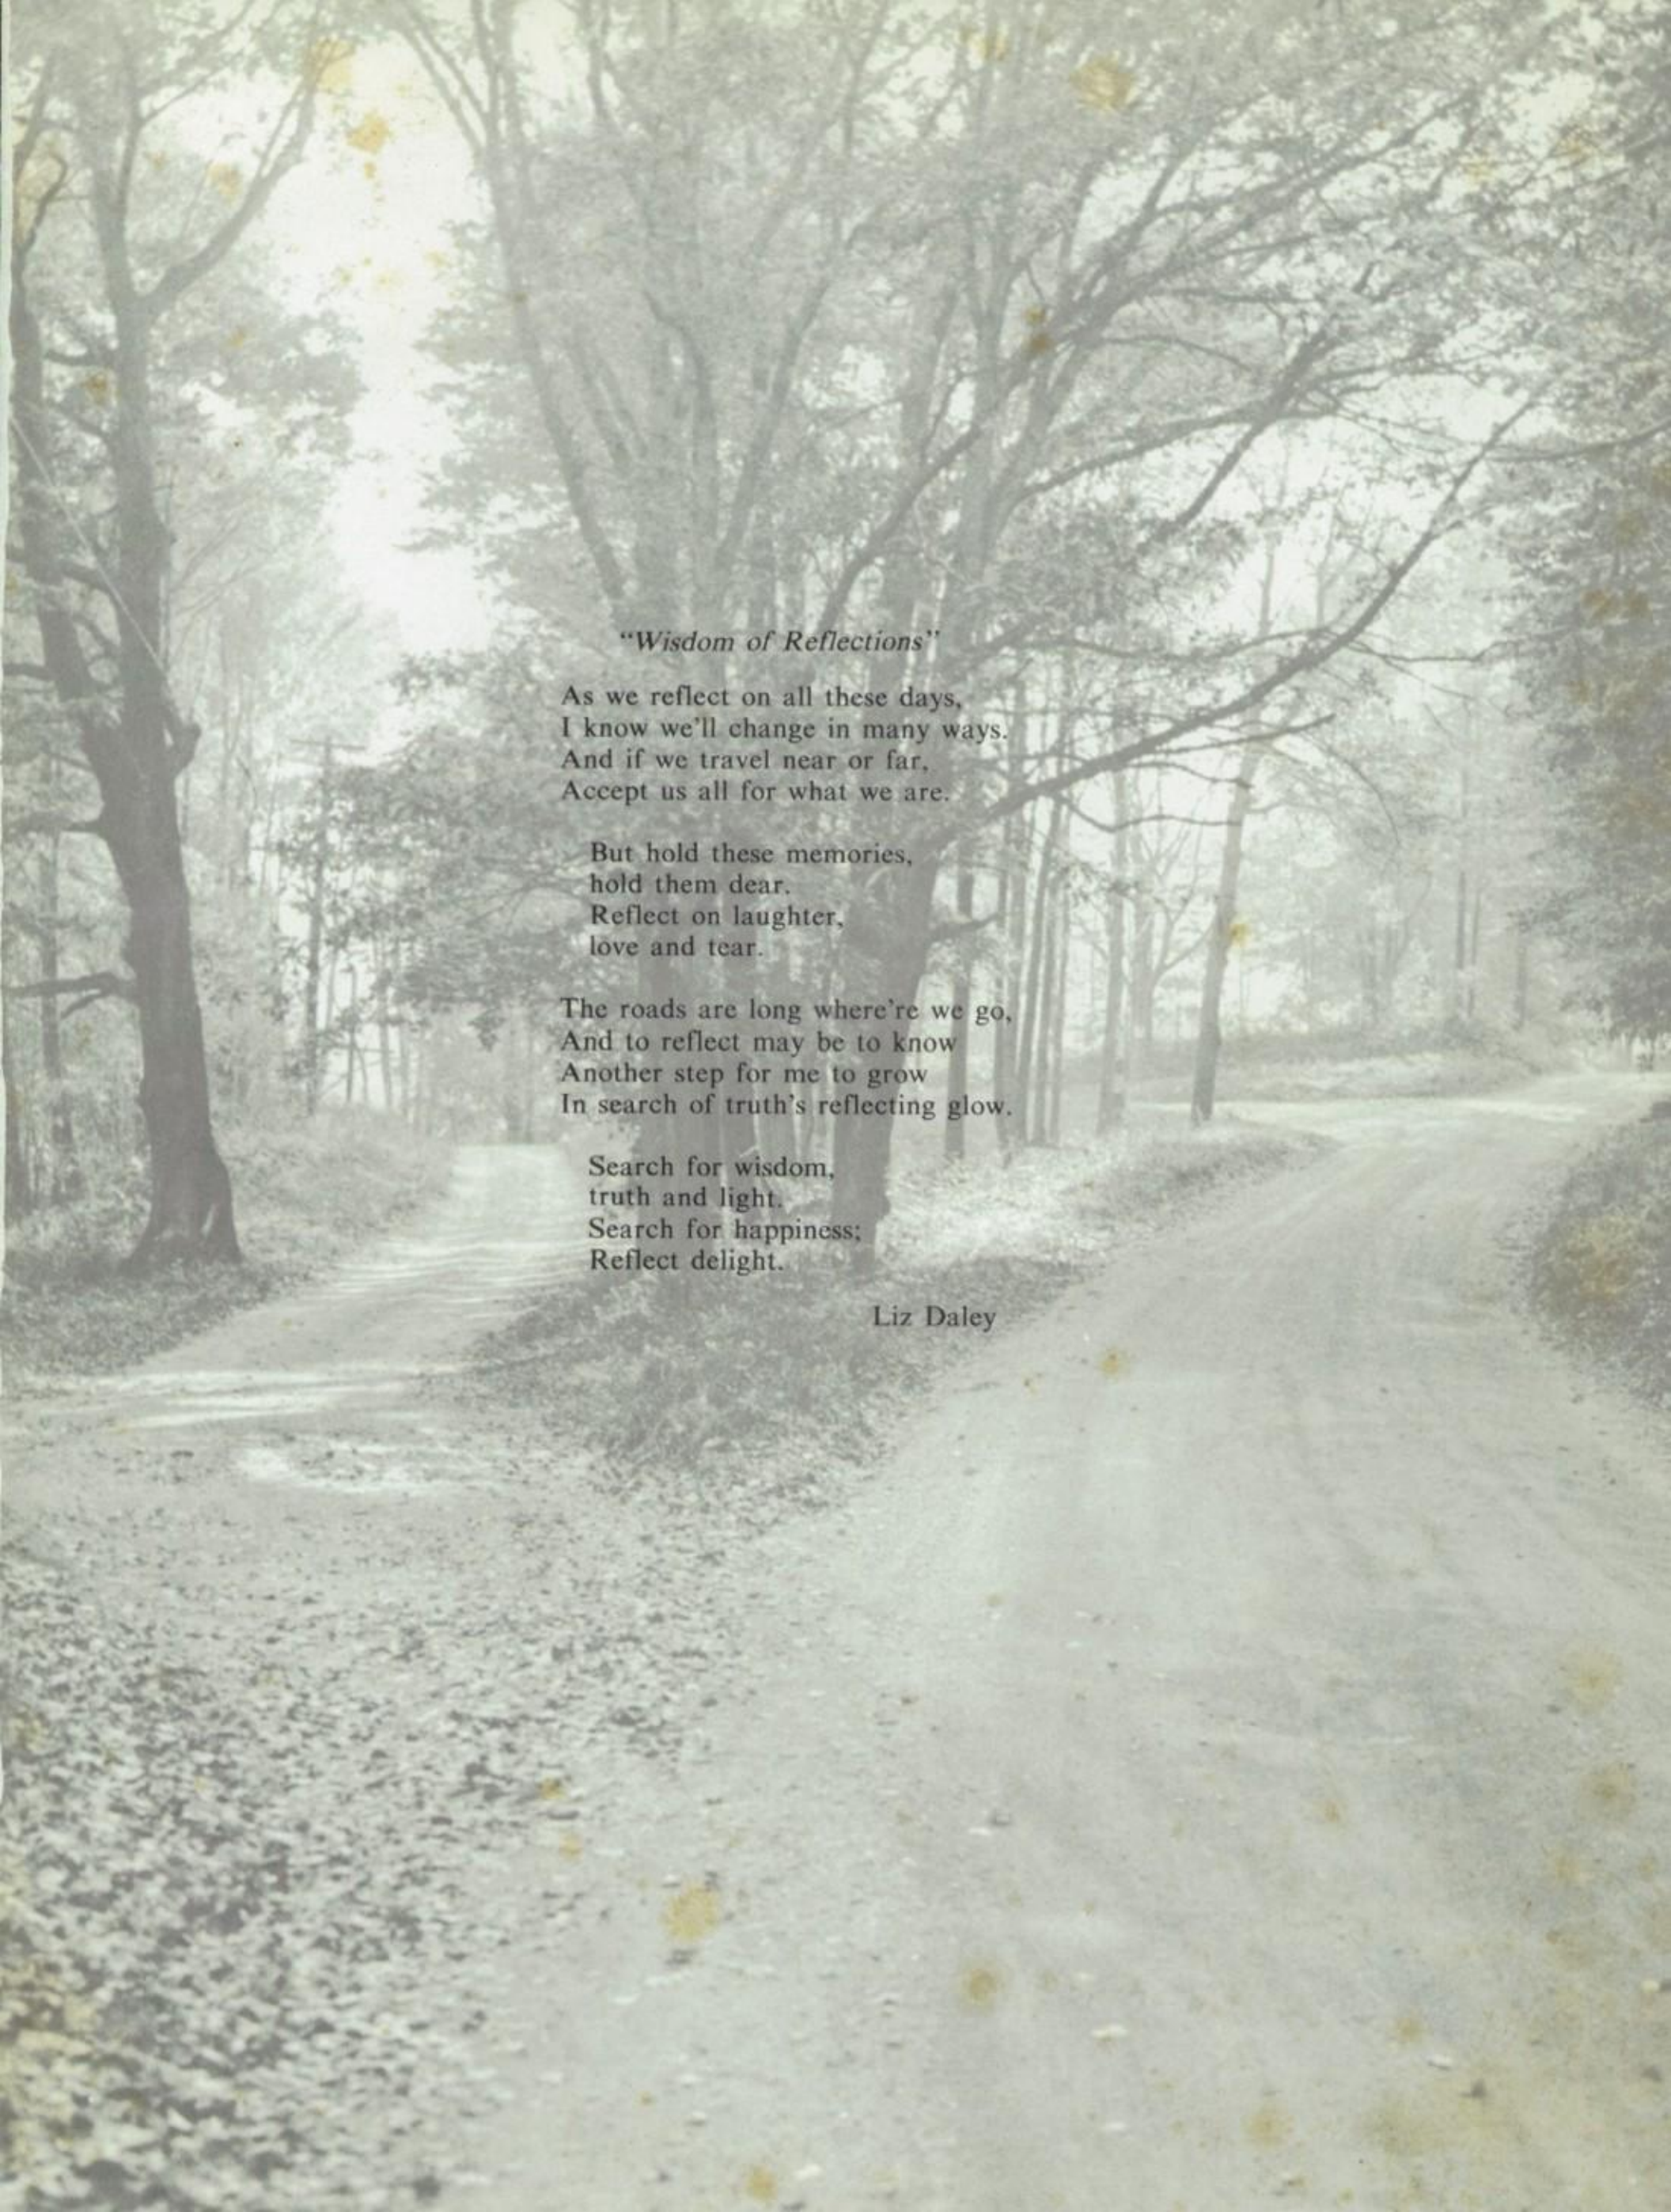
Reflections '79





"Wisdom of Reflections"

As we reflect on all these days,
I know we'll change in many ways.
And if we travel near or far,
Accept us all for what we are.

But hold these memories,
hold them dear.
Reflect on laughter,
love and tear.

The roads are long where're we go,
And to reflect may be to know
Another step for me to grow
In search of truth's reflecting glow.

Search for wisdom,
truth and light.
Search for happiness;
Reflect delight.

Liz Daley

THE ROAD TO 1979!

Who could forget that day on September 7th, 1972, when our class first met together to form the great class of '79? Everyone got to know each other pretty fast and soon, there were many friendships and couples between the "Ockawamick kids" and the "Roe Jan kids".

We got right into the swing of things at the beginning. Bridgette Kesseling won snow queen, Judy Scofield was the head of the student council, and the classical clown, Brent Tipple, put toothpaste on a filmstrip, all in 7th grade.

By eighth grade, one could tell we were going to be a rowdy bunch! We were the champs in boy's eighth grade basketball and the girl's team wasn't bad either. That long lost couple Peggy Dalton and Martin Robertson won snow queen and snow king that year. We also got a taste of our first regents exam; Earth Science, and of course, our 8th grade graduation. It was so hot that day and we all sweated through the procession, but we all knew that we were definately cool after that. To end our Jr. High days and welcome our High School days, there was Barbara Halpin's party. And what a party that was!

In our freshman year, there were more people to meet, more things to do, and more books to study. The new principal, Mr. Bohley, Met us at the door and tried his hardest to break us in right. He broke us in right, alright; we were spoiled!

In tenth grade we met our match; Mr. Alpart. He didn't play games and he worked us hard. The worst geometry class he had ever had, so he said. "Babbling Idiots." Little did anyone know, senioritis was already setting in.

Then came our busiest year; our junior year. There were many full schedules, yet lots of fun. We began raising money for the Ring Banquet by having bake sales, selling calendar towels and selling candy. Our Ring Banquet was held at the Elm Tree Restaurant on December 14th, 1977, where we received our long awaited rings. Diane Riell toasted the men of our class and Bryan Schemerhorn toasted the women and a good time was had by all.

Our junior class representatives were: Peggy Dalton, President; Vicki Colburn, vice president; Stephen Van Tassel, secretary; Glenn Schnackenberg, treasurer.

At last, our most treasured event was upon us; the Junior Prom. One can't begin to tell exactly when it started. Whether it was the prom meetings themselves, the pomping for two weeks straight, or the second the clock struck 7:30 P.M., it was all worth it and extremely memorable. But on May 20th, 1978, 200 people gathered at Taconic Hills School for Will O' Wisp and it was quite the sight. Sorcerer played our theme song "We May Never Pass This Way Again."

DEDICATION

What do you say to a person who believed in, fought for, and prayed for 150 people that were a group, but were as different and as spread out as the planets? To someone who always cared about us because he really wanted to? To someone who was so tough as a teacher, one couldn't believe he was the same teacher.

For all the hours you spent with us and for us, for being an impossible marker, for making our Junior and Senior years possible (and when we say possible, we mean just that), and for being our friend.

Mr. Holtz., to you we dedicate our yearbook. Something of great value to someone who is priceless!

Remember when . . .

We were underclassmen.

Mr. Margolin made us answer thousands of Odyssey questions and then didn't mark them.

Mr. Bohley was principal and made announcements all day long.

some of those announcements were in Japanese.

the faculty had a baby boom.

Mr. Hotalen was absent.

the old men painted the wall . . . the floors . . . and the ceiling.

the gym classes weren't co-ed.

half the students walked out to the tennis courts, and then got suspended.

we had the great assemblies like "Look Out Space Cadets" and the lady accordian player.

the Biology classes went on a field trip to learn about blood.

some of our class rings were missing or wrong.

you could travel the hall before 8:20 a.m.

there was a flu outbreak and not enough substitutes.

we first met Mr. Crandall and Mr. McGoldrick.

there was no gate at the back entrance.

there was a Senior Skip Day.

the Girls Room Beautification Committee.

we had a happy.

THE AVERAGE DAY OF A SENIOR

The average senior arrives at good old Taconic Hills at 8:15 a.m. He then goes directly to the cafeteria to buy his doughnut to support his class. He patiently waits for the 8:20 bell to ring. When the bell finally does ring, he plods with the rest of the masses to his locker which is located in the little senior locker room. To his surprise, there are thousands of people mingling and what have you, in the doorway.

When he finally reaches his locker, he hears a sound that gives him a sick feeling in his stomach—the 8:30 bell. Once again he is LATE for homeroom. He tries to muster the most innocent look he possibly can and meekly walks to his homeroom, hoping that he'll be able to get through the door.

But once again he is told to go to the office for a late pass. As he sits on the hard, cold, wooden bench, he tries to think of an original excuse that will just amaze Mr. McGoldrick to the point of belief. Naturally when confronted by Mr. McGoldrick, the only words our hero can mutter is, "But I'm a SENIOR!!!" The immortal words bring a smile to Mr. McGoldrick's lips but he issues his stern warning of "Don't make this a habit!"

Our senior then leaves the office and walks directly to his homeroom (after visiting the school store) and takes the seat nearest the door. He then does all the homework he can fit into the five remaining minutes of homeroom.

At last the bell rings and our senior's day begins. Our senior has speech first period and it is his day to get up and speak. When called upon, our senior then presents his speech he so carefully prepared in homeroom.

Next our senior has study hall in 218 (Where else?). He pushes through the crowd surrounding the teacher's desk, neatly signs his name, and then places a big SP next to it. He then goes outside and sits in the cold rain with all the other seniors. When this period ends, our senior's day is over, because you see, all seniors have early dismissals.

FIELD HOCKEY

Comment: Again this year it is necessary to say, "Thank you, goodbye, we'll miss you," to a large number of seniors. Hockey '78 was the year of a new experience---we suffered our first Patroon loss and finished in second place in the Conference behind Ichabod. We made it to the finals of Sectionals and became the only Section II team to make it to finals all four years. To Katy, Shirley, Peggy, Mary, Karen, Robin, Kim, Deb, Diane and Beth, best of luck and remember to come back next year to watch a game. There'll always be a place along the sideline for you!

FOOTBALL

Comment: Football '78 was a rewarding year for some and not for others. The squad had only 16 seniors and was faced with the obvious fact that it was a rebuilding year. The first games of the season were marked by inconsistent team performances, but strong personal performances by seniors Tim Brown and Steve Miller. The squad stepped forward with determination and optimism to make something of the season. Leadership emerged and the attitude was, "Get with it or get lost."

From a personal standpoint, I am immensely proud of most members of this statement will help others to look upon you for what you have achieved rather than the games the team lost.

Comment: This years team has been a very enjoyable one to work with from a coaching standpoint. Being a very young team, we made a lot of mistakes but as the season progressed the enthusiasm and spirit were not lost at any time, and we improved steadily. We were able to compete against top notch teams (6 are in sectional play-(8 games) and as a result we gained a lot of valuable experience. The future looks encouraging with the addition of some standout, J.V. prospects!

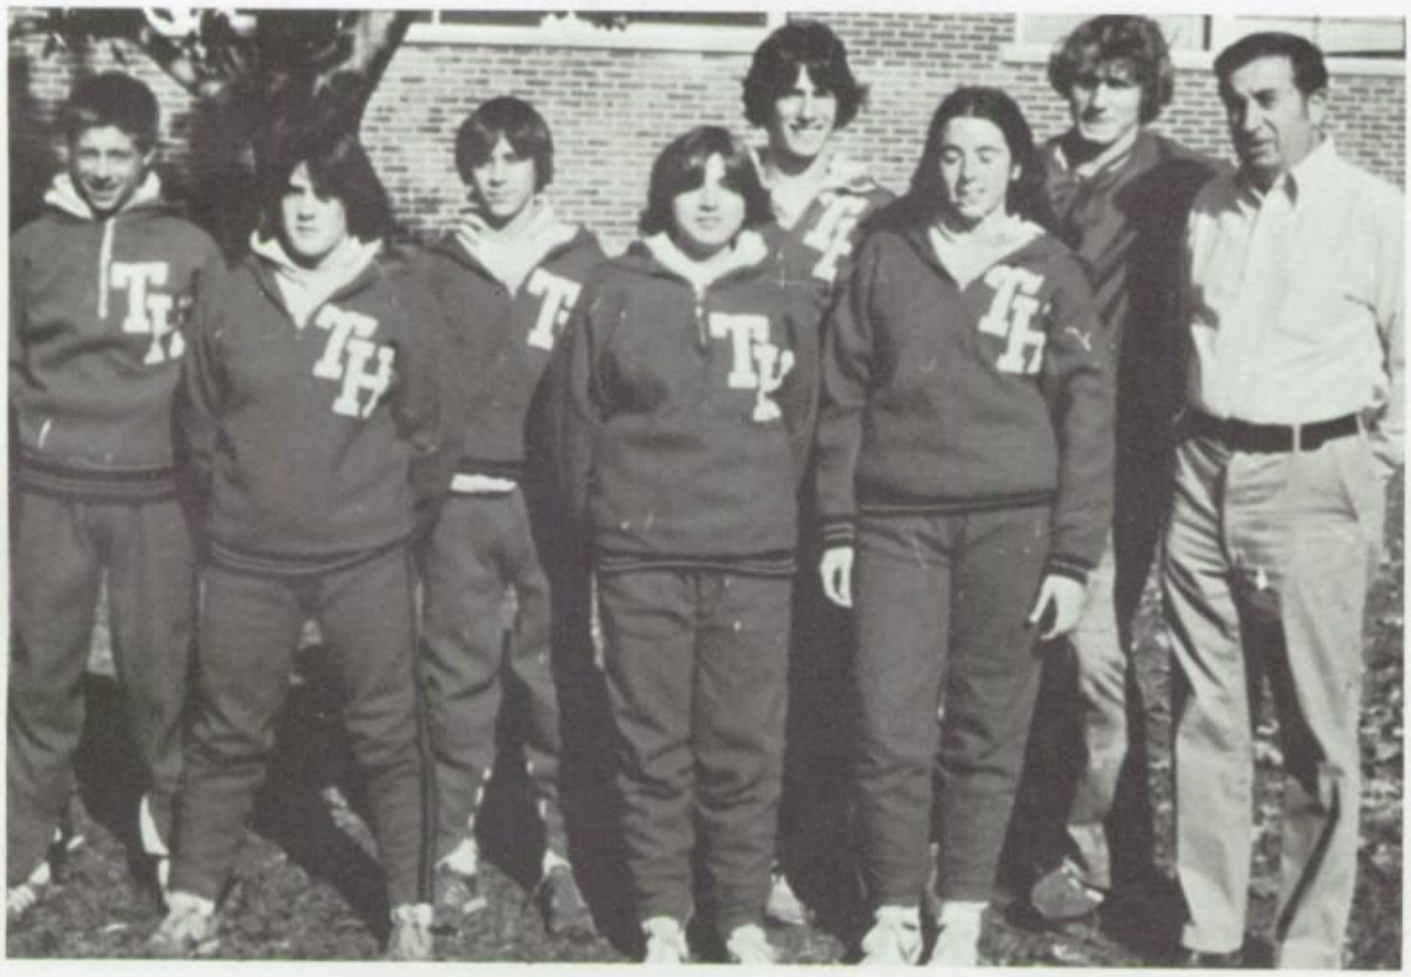
Comment: During this four week stretch our team had the medalist in 12 out of 13 matches. We set a record of 156 strokes for one match. Had the Entire Team break 50 in three separate matches. Went undefeated in 8 Patroon Conference matches and captured the Conference undefeated.

CROSS COUNTRY



L-R: J. Mann, T. Wright, C. Preusser, C. Duarte, B. Gellert, S. Mettler, B. Bradway, Coach Smith

Comment: In dual competition our record was 0 wins and all losses. Moving to the individual performances we really did shine. As cross country is a coed sport the three girls did an outstanding job. The highlight of the season was the outstanding performance of the teams MVP, Cindy Duarte.

Row 1: K. Cashen, S. Gambacorta, L. Gallup Row 2: J. Coons, M. Folmsbee, S. Van Tassel, A. Neal, R. Lindig

Comment: Starting the season with only 2 returning varsity members meant that we pretty much had to start from scratch. The loss of our first seven matches didn't make things any easier, but the girls really stuck with it and came away with 2 victories in the final 3 matches. That both of those victories came against teams that we'd lost to earlier in the year is an indication of the progress that was made. A solid foundation was set for next year.

AUTOGRAPHS

"The Last of the Red Hot 70's"

This Yearbook Is A Representation Of What We Feel Are The Highlights Of Our Senior Year As The Class Of '79. Included In These Highlights Are The People Who Make Up Our School, Which Are The Faculty, The Administration And The Future Seniors Of THHS.

This Year, The Theme Of Our Yearbook Is Wisdom In A Rather Subtle Way. They Along With The Poem On The First Page, Symbolize The Idea That Through The Years Of School, Our Class Has Learned Many Things About Each Other, And Have Gained An Outlook On Life Through The Years Of School Together.

In The End Of The Yearbook, We Have Put The Song "We May Never Pass This Way Again", Which Stated A Very Simple Fact: Once We Leave, We Can Never Go Back To The Way It Was, And We The Editors, Hope That This Yearbook Will Let The Class Of '79 Go Back To "Wisdom Of Reflections" In Their Memories.

A PAGE OF THANKS

We, The Editors Of Reflections '79, Wish To Express Our Gratitude To Some Very Special People.

We Thank Mr. Crandall For His Understanding And Cooperation When It Seemed There Wouldn't Be A Yearbook.

We Thank Mrs. Westfall And Mrs. Garafalo For Their Help And The Use Of Their Room.

We Thank Mr. Knitt, Our Advisor, And All The Faculty Members For Understanding Our Constant Interruptions.

And Most Of All, We Thank Our Yearbook Staff. Although They Were Few In Number, They Were The Most Hard-Working And Devoted Group Of People That Any Editors Could Possibly Want. Without Their Help, This Yearbook Would Not Have Been Possible. We Love You All!
